

Staff Engineer

Ott Consulting Inc. (www.OttEng.com) is a well-respected Civil Engineering Firm with offices in the Lehigh Valley and the Slate Belt/Pocono Mountain regions. We are looking for a creative, energetic professional to work on our innovative team of civil engineers, surveyors, landscape architects, GIS specialists and AutoCAD designers. Our projects include a well-balanced mix of land development projects from all segments of the industry – residential, commercial, industrial, institutional and municipal.

Ott Consulting has a position opening for a Staff Engineer to work with office staff/management to successfully complete projects within established budgets and deadlines. Site design duties will include development of Erosion & Sedimentation (E&S) Control Plans, Stormwater Management, site layout, grading plans and related calculations, reports and spreadsheets, prepare various permit applications and perform QC/QA review. Municipal Engineering duties will include plan review and preparation of plans and specifications for public works projects.

Essential Qualifications:

- Required BS Degree from an accredited civil engineering program; EIT required with the goal to obtain a PA Professional Engineers License
- Minimum of 3 years of experience with a Working knowledge of all aspects of civil site development including site design, stormwater management, utility design, cost estimating, site construction, etc.
- Effective written and verbal communication skills
- Experience with Traffic Analysis and Design and preparation of Traffic Studies are a plus
- Knowledge or experience with State and Federal agencies as well as local Counties
- Ability to organize and manage multiple priorities and collaborate with others on a design team
- AutoCAD/Civil 3D experience preferred
- Ability to manage multiple projects at one time
- Ability to manage staff
- Consistently demonstrate professional demeanor, appearance and attitude
- Working knowledge of Microsoft software products (Word, Excel, Outlook)

Salary & Benefits:

We offer a competitive salary and benefit package including medical, dental, vision, AD&D insurance, sick, vacation, etc. We also offer a 401k retirement plan with potential for profit sharing. Salary commensurate with experience.

Ott Consulting Inc. focuses on continued client satisfaction through exceptional quality of service. The staff at Ott Consulting Inc. enjoys a family-oriented work atmosphere with many opportunities for career advancement. We will continue to steadily grow our firm based upon a need basis. Ott Consulting Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.

Email resume to contact@otteng.com

