LEHIGH VALLEY SECTION STUDENT MEMBER EARNS 2023 REGION 2 OUTSTANDING ASCE STUDENT AWARD

Andrew Kline, a resident of Oley, Pennsylvania and rising-senior at Villanova University was selected to receive ASCE Region 2's Outstanding ASCE Student Award for 2023. The award recognizes a student member's efforts to advance the profession and student chapter development through student chapter development, activities, and community service. Andrew is President of Villanova University's ASCE Student Chapter. His ASCE activities include participation in ASCE's Student Presidential Group, the Subcommittee on Implementation of the Strategic Plan, and the PA Council. He is a Student Ambassador for ASCE, and served as the Student Chairperson for the ASCE 2023 Mid-Atlantic East Student Symposium that brought students from twelve civil engineering college programs to Villanova.
